

Your Values,
Your Business.

Openness

Co-ops value openness and are open to everyone willing to accept the responsibilities of membership, without discrimination. Co-ops encourage new ideas to tackle issues that are important to members – from helping the community to changing the world.

Every member-owner has a voice and contributes to their organization either through direct contact, education or by participating on the Board of Directors. As a cooperative member-owner you have democratic control and can impact the future of your cooperative.

That's what we mean when we say "co-ops turn values into good business."
