

Board of Directors

Richard C. Oliver
Region VII

Richard C. Oliver was elected to REC's board of directors in 1996. Retired from teaching and administration in the Fairfax County school system, he operates the family-owned Five Oaks farm in Orange County. Mr. Oliver has served on the Orange County Planning Commission, the Orange County School Board, and the County Board of Tax Equalization. He currently serves on the boards of Loudoun Mutual Insurance Company and Johnson-Winston-

Semones.

He is a member of Orange Baptist Church, a life member of the Great Falls Volunteer Fire Department, is active in numerous agricultural organizations, and is a Paul Harris Fellow of Rotary International.