

Senior Management

Robert A. Ellis, P. E.

Vice President Engineering and Operations

Robert A. Ellis became vice president of engineering and operations in April 2003. He is responsible for the operations, maintenance, construction, engineering, and planning functions at REC. Prior to his current position, Ellis was assistant vice president of district services. He holds a bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering from the University of Virginia and is a licensed Virginia Professional Engineer. He is a native of Wilmington, NC and currently resides in Culpeper County, VA.