

Board of Directors

William M. Alphin
Region I

William M. Alphin was elected to the REC board in 1977 and served on the board of the Virginia, Maryland & Delaware Association of Electric Cooperatives (past chairman five different years, past vice chairman and past secretary). He served 23 years on the Old Dominion Electric Cooperative board. He continues to serve on the Regional Headquarters, Inc. (past vice chairman). He has completed the NRECA Director Certification Program. Mr. Alphin served six years as a director of the Culpeper Regional Hospital and 16 years on the Culpeper County Farm Bureau board as president. He spent 12 years as a director on the Virginia State Farm Bureau board. He is one of three active 50-year charter members of the Salem Ruritan Club and a past president. He was inducted into the Patrick Henry Society as a 50-year alumnus of Hampden Sydney College.

A retired insurance advisor with 20 years of service to the Virginia Farm Bureau Insurance Company, Mr. Alphin still operates the six-generation, family beef cattle farm near Boston, Virginia. He and his wife Mary are members of Culpeper Baptist Church, where he has served on the board of deacons (past chairman), on many committees, as a youth Sunday school teacher and adult Sunday school class leader. Mr. and Mrs. Alphin have four grown children and six grandchildren.
